Three Big Factors. The natural resources of a city represent its wealth; the best of a city represent the grade of its society; the government of a city represents the degree to which the ideal of its citizens are put into practice.

No city can have its maximum prosperity, good will, success and strength without a government commensurate with its other activities. Nominate Henke for mayor—he will elevate the government of Tulsa to a plane where it belongs.—Paid Political Advertisement Contributed.

Leaf Illustrates Trinity. It was St. Patrick who made the shamrock the symbol of Ireland that is today. Using the leaf to illustrate the mystery of the Trinity, it was suggested in the minds of the people whom he taught with the good father himself, and it soon became Ireland's national flower.

It is, perhaps, something of an unusual feat of fate that the dead, real or imaginary, for which St. Patrick is most talked of, if he had been born today, is his supposed freeing of Ireland from the pest of snakes and other vermin. The deed is commemorated in an Irish song—

"There's not a mile in Ireland's land, Where the dirty vermin murther; Whence he put his foot forward, He murthered them in clusters. The mounds went up, the frogs went down, And the people committed suicide To save themselves from slaughter."

But whether it be for the converts he made, the schools he established or the snakes he killed, St. Patrick has become an international character. St. Patrick's day, the 17th of March, is one of the festival days of the calendar and there will be few people who will not pay tribute then in some small way, even though it be not more than by the wearing of a tiny green leaf to his memory.

Became Come True. The meaning of the day will be illustrated this year by virtue of the epoch-making events that have made this year a memorable one in the history of embattled Ireland. Prophets of long years, dreams of patriots for decades past, have come true, but it is to be doubted if the popularity of the day, that old ballad, nevertheless, will ever wane.

"When law can stop the blades of grass growing as they grow, And when the leaves in summertime their color dare not show, Then I will change the color, too, I swear in my caubeen, But that day, please God, I'll still be wearin' of the green."

To the F. J. Bays detective agency will be entrusted henceforth the task of locating all automobiles stolen from the Automobile Club of Oklahoma, the board of directors of the club at a weekly luncheon Thursday having designated this as the official agency for recovery of stolen cars.

Dr. A. Ray Wiley, club president, in commenting on the action pointed to the record that every car stolen from club members for the past 11 months has been recovered, and to the work which the club has done since its organization in protecting the motorist, notably securing stricter legislation relative to car thefts.

He also called the attention of directors to the part played by the club in securing a long jail sentence recently for an auto thief. The club offer of $100 for the arrest and conviction of any thief will hold good.

Dr. Wiley urged all club members to report to the Tulsa house tag for their automobiles, the tags to be obtained from the American Legion.
